CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

“I thought I knew what Feng Shui was until I met Sasha. A lot of people practice a Western ‘lite’ version of the 5000 year old tradition. Sasha spent years studying this art form to do personal charts that blow anything else out of the water. She told me about physical issues I have had for years that she would have no prior knowledge of - except they were in my chart! And she told me how to balance them. She’s so warm, attentive, giving and masterful.”

—Tiffany W., Marketing Director, San Francisco, CA

“Sasha is a very personable, caring, and detailed oriented professional. She explained all the intricate details of how my life can be impacted in relation to Feng Shui. Even though this is a subject that you can get many books and videos to guide you, none of them can personalize it, nor explain how your astrology plays such a big role in respect to where you live and work.”

—Jeanne M., Business Consultant, Foster City, CA

“It was a pleasure to work with Sasha for my Feng Shui consultation. She is an excellent Feng Shui consultant and astrologer. Sasha is very detail oriented person. She explained things that I wasn’t paying attention to. I’ve already recommended her services to a couple of my friends; she is the best Feng Shui consultant in the bay area. Thank you Sasha!”

—Jolyati C., Business Consultant, San Mateo, CA

“It’s truly a gift to have Sasha in my life. Her Feng Shui expertise and knowledge of Chinese astrology far exceeded any expectations. Aided by my Four Pillars chart and intuitive awareness of Qi, she helped transform my space in ways that unleashed new levels of creative energy and better support my life goals. Sasha literally creates and holds a unique space for each and every one of her clients...”

“They say everything happens for a reason, and at the time when it’s supposed to happen. That could not be truer than when I had the good fortune to meet Sasha. The changes began almost immediately. At Sasha’s direction we’ve made changes to our home; these changes have resonated to feeling a sense of well-being and deeper security when we are there. Sasha is the Water Lily that the heavens saw fit to drop onto my pond, so the ripples would give new life to the water below.”

— Patrice S., Business Consultant, San Mateo, CA

“I just wanted to extend a big "thank you" for the time, effort, and thoughtfulness that went into your Feng Shui consultation of my new business. Great to know the significance of different areas and directions of the business and how best to maximize their properties. Thank you for being in my life and for all of your support.”

— Lisa T., Desa Arts, Gallery Director, Oakland, CA

“I had a great experience working with Sasha and she was very helpful in energizing my new home/art studio. I teach kids art from my home, and all my students feel Sasha’s influence in the learning area and many of them, as well as their parents have commented on the positive, creative energy. Sasha was very friendly, courteous, and is obviously an expert in Feng Shui. You can tell she loves what she does and has a very sincere and genuine interest in her clients. The Feng Shui analysis she wrote is very informative and provides an ongoing reference in order to keep this positive energy flowing. Thanks so much, Sasha!”

— Krishna B., Artist/teacher/Designer, San Francisco, CA

“Fantastic!!! Very knowledgeable!!! Listened to what I wanted!!! Handled every aspect in a very professional manner, yet made me feel like I was working with a dear friend!!! The process is still evolving but definitely anticipate being completely wowed!!!!”

“I have to admit that I didn’t know anything about Feng Shui and the BaZi Astrology. I was surprised at how complex and fascinating the process was. Even now, two years later, I recheck her book from time to time. It must be working - my novel came out this year and everything is going well. Thank you!”

— Melodie B., Writer, San Francisco, CA

“It was an amazing experience working under Sasha’s guidance. My home is finally complete with a kind of soul that fills me with joy and energy every moment. Because of Feng Shui I know myself better now. I no longer see my home as a sterile living space but as a place of intimate interaction, where I can pray and express my deepest self. Feng Shui principles also helping me with my career. I am so elevated! Thank you...”

— Tae H., Director of Oakland Garden School, Oakland, CA

“My first feng shui consultation with Sasha was eye-opening. She’d brought along charts she developed according to our birthdays. These charts clearly defined our elements and showed characteristics unique to my husband and I. Clutter was one of our main problems. She emphasized that we can’t move forward in our lives spiritually if we don’t learn to detach. Her enthusiasm motivated me. Whenever I look at the clutter in my home, I still think of Sasha saying ‘learn to detach; it is the only way you will move forward and grow’.”

“When Sasha first took a look around my apartment, she gave it pretty good marks. It had pretty good flow — my attempts at decorating, painting and fixing up the place had produced good results. But upon further examination, she uncovered some problems. I was fascinated, and wanted to know what could I do to fix these things. Sasha offered a few simple, inexpensive solutions. Several months later, I found a new, good paying client in my work, my social life opened up, and though I haven’t met anyone special yet, I have this feeling it’s right around the corner!”

— Lisa A., Communications Consultant, Oakland, CA

“Have you ever felt that you can’t keep up no matter what you do? Being a mother of two young children with full time work, plus a home life to take care of, life is not simple. What I learned from Sasha was moving furniture and putting chimes and crystals around the house does not necessarily make your life flow well. It has to come from within — you have to know what you want, and focus on the area of your life that needs work. Feng Shui helped me to understand and change certain patterns.”

— Luisa M., Business Consultant, Pittsburg, CA

“Life has changed at the Baldwin home. Our family life has become more calm and loving. I am “doing” less and “being” more. I do not feel “rushed” any more mentally or physically. My daily reminder to stop and smell the roses has had amazing results. I still have a ways to go on my wish list of changes, but even the small ones I’ve done so far have had great impacts. As a final note, I am eager to resume my writing. I’ve already changed the title of my book based on some very creative thinking that’s been coming my way lately... I had one of those full-circle moments recently that felt like destiny. Life is good! Thank you for leading me on this amazing journey!”

“I went to a presentation of Sasha’s and I couldn’t hold myself back. Her enthusiasm, depth and breadth of knowledge, and genuine concern for people hooked me. Sasha provides much more than what I’d previously known to be Feng Shui; her services are comprehensive, practical, and provided with compassion. Information from the Four Pillars is critical to setting priorities and making overall recommendations — changing diagnostic and remedial interpretations one finds in books. This is the critical benefit of a professional consultant with comprehensive skills.”

— Julie B., Seamstress/Designer, Berkeley, CA

“Sasha brings calmness and perspective that I really appreciate. Many thanks.”

— Noreen J., Photographer, Berkeley,

“Working with Sasha was a great experience! What a blessing to have you in our home! We notice differences already! But more so, it was an honor to have you do our ceremonies and give us a way to consider ourselves. I am looking very forward to seeing you again. I slept for a long time that day. A deep and restful sleep. So we are on our ‘mission’ and I look forward to seeing you and knowing you. You are both in our prayers, gratitude and thoughts.”

— Barbara T., Massage Therapist, Petaluma, CA

“Sasha, Thank you. I have so benefited from your professional and insightful counsel applying the BaZi, Chinese Astrology to my life’s challenges. Your forecasting was absolutely correct and I am glad to say I have reaped the benefits of following your advice. Applying your knowledge of the flow of energy, the use of color and the placement of objects in my home environment allowed me to make change and manifest it and a new appreciation for the ancient Asian system with which you so expertly work and share with others. With heartfelt thanks for how much you enrich my life.”

“The BaZi, Four pillars analysis allowed me to understand how earthly elements like water, fire, earth, wood and metal have an impact in our life to a larger or lesser degree. Sasha’s analysis provided valuable insight on my inner and external strengths and weaknesses and a ten year luck cycle calendar matched important cycles in my life. Sasha is highly professional, detailed and thorough and very clear with the ability to explain complex concepts in layman terms.”

— Carmen C., Investment and Financial Strategist, San Francisco, CA

“I don’t know where to begin thanking you. We gained such valuable insight from your visit. We immediately made some of the suggested improvements to our home and instantly feel better, clearer, and more abundant in many areas of our life. You will have to come back up to so we can show you all the things we have done, and are planning to do. Thanks again.”

— Chris O., News Editor, Sonoma, CA

“Thanks you for your visit to our home. We had a lot of fun learning about our new house. We are planning to make all the changes you suggested before we move in. It is a lot of work so that may be a while. Thank you again for all your help and insight.”

— MinJung, MD, Optometrist, San Mateo, CA

“Sasha was friendly, competent and professional. She is incredibly knowledgeable, utilizing the many feng shui tools at her disposal (astrology, clearing) to evaluate my home and giving me practical recommendations to support me on my life’s journey. Her astrological evaluation of myself and partner were eerily accurate. I only wish I had called her out to my home sooner! I will definitely be utilizing Sasha again when it comes time for landscaping.”

— Christina P, Student, Livermore, CA
